“ My Condloences to all the family. My son in law is Joey Sims and I know from him what kind of lady Mrs. Bailey was. She was an intricate part in her grandsons lives and she was loved dearly by them. My daughter April very much loved and admired her and felt like Mrs. Bailey was her own grandmother. This was a good woman and much loved by many. Rest in peace Mrs. Bailey, you are with the Lord.

“ Connie, so sorry to read about your mama today. I know she was very special to you. I know from what you have told me you enjoyed visiting and taking very good care of her. She was indeed lucky to have the son like you. My thoughts and prayers are with you, Lynn and Casey's family and your entire family.
