“ There may have been long periods between personal contact. We always had many pleasant and silly thoughts of you. Some may have been a little stressful, but, we have many more that will always bring laughter to us. Our long phone conversations kept us close for nearly 70 years. It was as if we just talked or saw each other yesterday and continued our conversation. We could say things to each other that couldn't be said to others. If you could hear me now I am sure you are having a good laugh at some of the silly things we said, shared and done. It will be as if you are still here with us. We had enough good and happy thoughts to carry us for the rest of time we have here. When I say "we" I am sure you know who I mean. I feel that he felt you was the sister he never had. I was glad for almost 65 years that you two could cut up and joke to each other. I know he hurts for my loss, but, I think he feels it too. We are very hurt we wasn't able to be with you at the end. We (you & us) planned it that way. We are sure you understand the circumstances as we are trying too. You will never be forgotten.
