“Mrs. Clark was a such super nice lady. She was great friends with Jean Clinton of Martin Motor Co. and I saw her frequently when she would be in the store. Rest well, Mrs. Clark!”

“I first met Lynn several years ago as she was best friends with my mother, Marguerite (Bubba) Walker. My mother, Lynn and Sarah (Bootie) Holifield had lunch together almost every day and I would join them when I was in Laurel. Since they were frequently seen together, they were dubbed “the Golden Girls” by some people who knew them. Lynn was a very special person and always greeted with a big smile and a bright positive attitude. She was smart, kind, generous and thoughtful. I will miss her very much as I know many of those who knew her will. My sincere condolences to her family with whom she has left a wonderful legacy. Sandra Walker Holmes”

“Mrs. Clark was a sweet presence wherever she was. My sisters and I lived behind the Clarks, so we shared an alley. The Clark girls and the Laurendine girls would often play together. One day when running through their backyard, barefooted — as usual — I stepped on a honeybee, and it stung my heel. Mrs. Clark heard me crying and rushed out to take care of me. I still remember her kindness to me.”

“Lynn was the coolest mom ever! NEVER saw her or Bill mad! They were so kind and loving and fun. How lucky I was to grow up down the street from the Clark gals. . What a beautiful legacy she and Bill left with those beautiful families!
