

Fay Culpepper Campbell

September 21, 1939 - January 21, 2025

Fay Culpepper Campbell entered her Heavenly home surrounded by her loving family on Tuesday, January 21, 2025. She did not have to tell you she was a Christian, she manifested her love for her Lord and was ready to "go home."

Fay was a member of First Baptist Church, Laurel, MS, for many years. She served on numerous committees and was a Sunday School Teacher for several age groups ending with senior adult ladies, who she enjoyed and often said "they taught me more than I could ever have taught them." She supported her daughter and son in all their activities as they matured to adults.

Fay was greeted in Heaven by her loving, supportive husband, Ralph; her parents, Adrian and Evelyn Causey Culpepper of Meridian, MS, and other relatives.

She is survived by her daughter, Leslie Fay; son, Richard Barry; daughter-in-love, Jennifer; and was "Grammy" to her beloved granddaughter Jocelyn. Also surviving is her sister, Kay (Glenn) Pugh; nieces, nephews, other relatives, and other friends.

A special thank you to Nell Wilkerson who has been in our home for 28 years and helped Fay in any way needed during her illness.

A graveside service will be held at 2:30 p.m. on Saturday, January 25, 2025 at Lake Park Hills Cemetery conducted by Rev. Chris Floyd. Visitation will be from 1:00 until 2:00 p.m. Saturday at Memory Chapel Funeral Home.

Honorary pallbearers will be Frank Cox, Dr. George Bush, Dr. Richard Bush, Kyle Bush, David Nicholas, and Matthew Nicholas.

It was Fay's and is the family's desire, in lieu of flowers, memorials be made to Batson Children's Hospital, www.growchildrens.org, 2500 North State Street, Jackson, MS.
