“ Dear Billy Joe,
My 1st husband, Gary Clayton, had the good fortune to know both of your sweet parents when we first came to Laurel to run my father's oil company. They were so very friendly and helpful. Later, as a friend of Jean Lindsey's, I came to know Janelle as the most incredibly competent assistant to Jean at Brandon Petroleum. The Lindsey family was very fortunate to have an employee of her calibre for all of those years- as you were so very blessed to have such a wonderful mother. Cindy McNamara

“ Janelle and I were classmates in Haynesville. I knew both Janelle and Buzz. I am so sad to learn of her death. She was my good friend and a big part of my life there in Haynesville. I know you have beautiful memories of her.
