

Frances Elise Bond Savage

August 6, 1919 - February 27, 2013

Mrs. Frances Elise Bond Savage a resident of Laurel Mississippi died on February 27, 2013 in the State Veterans Home in Collins, Mississippi. Frances, fondly known as Lou, was born in Gilberttown, Alabama, August 6, 1919 to Dallas Taylor and Addie Campbell Bond. Frances proudly served in the Marine Corps during World War II. Frances met her future husband Richard Savage while serving in the Marine Corps in San Francisco. As a devoted loving wife, mother, and grandmother, she loved to decorate her home lavishly for every season and bake her delicious chocolate-chip cookies for her family. Frances is survived by her son Steve, her daughter-in-law, Jane of New Orleans, her granddaughter Jennifer Williams and Jennifer's husband Jacob, her great-granddaughter Rowynn of Terceira Azores, her granddaughter Kelley Morel and Kelley's husband Tommy, and her great-grandson Tommy of Asheville, NC. Visitation will be from 12:00 to 2:00 PM, Sunday, March 10, 2013 with funeral services at 2:00 PM at Memory Chapel in Laurel Mississippi. Burial will follow in Memorial Gardens Cemetery. Rev. Ken Harrison will officiate. Memory Chapel is in charge of services.