Mrs. McCarty was born Frances Jeanette Herrington on December 18, 1937 in Jones County, Mississippi to the late Woodard D. and Emma Herrington. She was reared in the Sharon community and accepted Jesus as her Savior at the First Baptist Church as a child.

She was graduated from Sharon High School and William Carey College with a degree in Education. She taught school briefly in Jones County.

In 1962 she married Emette Earl McCarty and homesteaded with him on their farm in Smith and Jasper Counties. She was active in the Edon Baptist Church and later Soso Baptist Church. She taught all ages of Sunday School, GAs, and Acteens. She volunteered with and led Youth functions and The Women's Missionary Union.

Her various meal and candy creations were well-known throughout the community, and she was especially gracious with her gift of service.

Mrs. McCarty was preceded in death by her husband; Emette Earl McCarty; her mother, Emma Herrington; and her brother, J.D. Herrington.

She is survived by her son, Ethan Earl; daughter, Freda Byrd (Neil); two grandsons, Edward Byrd, and Landon Byrd (Lindsey); and three great-grandchildren, Crawford Byrd, Lorelei Byrd, and William Byrd; numerous brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law, nieces, and nephews.

Pallbearers for Saturday's service will be friends of the family.

In lieu of flowers the family suggests donations to the International Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention or Samaritan's Purse.
