

Georgia Margaret Logan Stevens

March 15, 1918 - December 12, 2015

Georgia Margaret Logan Stevens went to be with her Lord on Saturday, December 12, 2015, at Mayberry Gardens, Garland, Texas. Her husband of seventy-two years, Rev. W. T. Stevens, and son, Charles Franklin Stevens, preceded her in death. She was born in Arvisburg, Mississippi, on March 15, 1918.

Margaret is survived by her son William (Bill) Stevens (Linda), daughter Dianne Bateman (Ken), daughter-in-law, Mary Ann Stevens, seven grandchildren, thirteen great grandchildren, and one great-great grandchild. She was a minister's wife for most of her adult life, taking her role seriously by entertaining ministers and missionaries at the parsonage, actively participating in Women's Missionary Society, and other responsibilities expected of a minister's wife during that era.

Margaret was a wonderful homemaker and could put together a delicious meal with ease. There was always cake, pie, or some kind of dessert prepared. Most family get-togethers were centered around her dining table. Services will be on Friday, December 18, 2015, at Memory Chapel, in Laurel, Mississippi. Visitation will be at 10 a.m., with service following at 11 a.m. Internment will be at Florence Cemetery, in Sandersville, Mississippi.
