She was of the Baptist faith and a member of Highland Baptist Church.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Henry G. Hill, Jr.; daughter-in-law, Cathy Ruth Cox Hill, and a great granddaughter, Haylee Kayleen McKee. Survivors include her children, Teresa Hill McKee (Dale) of Waynesboro; Larry Mitchell Hill (Monica) of Houston, Texas; and Karen Beth Boutwell (Jeff) of Flora, Mississippi; five grandchildren, Derek McKee (Merry) of McKinney, Texas; Brett McKee (Katy) of San Diego, California; Virginia Abrams (Brantley) of Houston, Texas; Jacob Hill (Jossie) of Austin, Texas; and Ann Katherine Boutwell of Flora, MS; five great grandchildren, Kenley Mae McKee, Davis Mitchell Abrams, Annie Ruth Abrams, Cayson Miles McKee, and Brantley Clay Abrams; sisters, Reta Maxey and Annette Strange; a brother, Carl Preston Strange; and a host of nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Hill was a well-known Mississippi artist. Her works were exhibited across the state, and she won numerous awards for her beautiful and creative water-colored roses. More recently her passion became abstract art in acrylics. She generously shared her artwork with family and friends.

A graveside service will be held at 2:00 in the Calhoun community at Springhill Baptist Church Cemetery on Friday, August 27. Brother Eric Estes of Highland Baptist Church in Laurel and Brother Gene Douglas will officiate. The family requests that social distancing be observed.

Pallbearers include grandsons Derek McKee, Brett McKee, Jacob Hill, and Brantley Abrams; nephew David Strange; sons-in-law Dale McKee and Jeff Boutwell; and special friend and neighbor, David Sparks.
