

Glenda Fay Kervin Moorner

September 30, 1940 - June 12, 2024

Mrs. Glenda Fay Kervin Moorner, age 83, native of Butler County, Alabama, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, June 12, 2024 at her home in Laurel, Mississippi. Glenda was born on September 30, 1940 to parents Suman Terry Kervin and Sally Sellers Kervin.

Glenda was preceded in death by her parents Suman and Sally Kervin, husband Bob Moorner, sisters Adonis K Stone and Francis K Wood, and brothers Devon E Kervin, Enoch T Kervin, and Elton H Kervin. Mrs. Moorner is survived by her two sons Robby Moorner (Mary) and Ricky Moorner (Jolee). She is also survived by her sibling Jan Hill (Norwood), grandchildren Kayla (Chad) Sims, Kyle Moorner, Wilton Moorner, Russell (Emma) Mullins, a host of nieces and nephews whom she loved dearly, and friends from across south Mississippi and Alabama.

Glenda was married to the love of her life for over 50 years. Mr. Bob told his boys to take care of their mother. Robby and Ricky knew that there actually would be "Tears in Heaven" if they did not carry out his wishes. As every care giver can attest, those boys were with their mom every step of the way.

Glenda was a member of the Kensington Woods Church of Christ. Glenda was at her happiest when she was cooking okra, her famous potato salad and stuffed eggs, decorating her home for family Christmas meals, and cheering on the University of Alabama.

Very few nights would pass when she wasn't talking on the phone for hours to her two lifelines Jan Hill and special niece Becky Shields.

The family would like to thank Deaconess Home Health and Hospice for their special care over the last few weeks.

Services will be held at Memory Chapel Funeral Home on Monday, June 17th with visitation beginning at 10 a.m. and the service following at 11 a.m. Interment will follow at Lake Park Hills Cemetery. Minister David Sargent will officiate.
