“ Glenda and Thomas, The loss of a Husband, Father or Friend is something that touches so many people. As a friend who has known and worked with Glenn for so many years, I feel it has made me a better person by seeing how he always dealt honestly and fairly with others and was highly regarded by them.

The pain of missing Glenn will never grow dim for you, but your comfort and strength will come from the promise that you will be reunited with him to share eternity.

May God Bless you and Thomas and all those family members who knew him best and miss him most.
