“ My Aunt Grace was my favorite aunt. I loved her sweet, southern accent. Most of all I loved her laugh and her kindness. She was so beautiful, both inside and out. It meant so much to us when she came all the way to Bloomington, Minnesota for our daughter, Christina's marriage. We had so much fun. I took her on a tour of the state capitol and showed her my desk in the House of Representative's chamber. We visited the St. Paul Cathedral and just had a lot of fun remembering our times in St. Louis, with Grandmother and Grandfather Brigham and playing with cousins Billie, David, Carol and Doug at Christmas time. Uncle Bill was also our favorite! He had such a great sense of humor. As children, my parents took us to see Uncle Bill and Aunt Grace. We had fun by the ocean and Uncle Bill took us to the "best" fish places. We had good "southern" cooking. Wonderful, precious memories of a lovely, Christian woman that touched so many lives with her gentleness, strength and love. We will miss you, Aunt Grace..

With fondest memories and love, forever,
