

Grace Keyes Blackledge

March 5, 1926 - July 2, 2024

Vera Grace Keyes Blackledge, age 98, of Laurel, MS went to be with her Savior and Lord on July 2, 2024. Grace was born on March 5, 1926, to Lillie Mae Goss Keyes and Deavours E. Keyes. Her life took a challenging turn when her mother passed away when she was 8 years old, followed by her father's passing just before her 10th birthday. She was then sent to Texas to live with relatives but eventually, she returned to Jones County to live with her uncle and aunt, Clyde and Elma Keyes, in the Mill Creek community. Despite the hardships, Grace found solace in her uncle and aunt's family, where she was embraced with love and care.

Grace met the love of her life, Jasper Milton (JM) Blackledge, and married on May 15, 1943. Together, they welcomed two children, Helen Doris Blackledge Stanley and Jasper Milton Blackledge, Jr. She embraced the roles of homemaker and devoted mother, while also caring for her elderly, wheelchair-bound mother-in-law, Hattie. As her children grew up and pursued their own paths, she embarked on a new journey by attending nursing school at Jones County Junior College and Charity Hospital, earning her LPN certification. She served as a school nurse at Myrick Elementary School in the early 1970s, then she furthered her nursing career at Jones County Community Hospital/South Central Regional Medical Center until her well-deserved retirement. After retiring from nursing, she continued to serve her community by driving a school bus for Myrick Elementary School and volunteering with the Red Cross. Additionally, she played an active role at Mill Creek Congregational Church, taking on various responsibilities such as Sunday School Secretary, choir member, VBS volunteer, and cemetery secretary. Her love for her community, church and church family shone through in all that she did.

In 1995, her husband, JM, suffered a serious stroke. Instead of placing him in a care facility, she chose to look after him at home until his passing in 1998. Later, in 2009, she faced another challenge when she was diagnosed with breast cancer, but she fought through it and became a cancer survivor. Known for her strong work ethic, she remained active for as long as she could. Despite her own battles, she found joy in helping others. Often her granddaughters would return home from a long day of work to find “Mammaw” had visited their house, performing household chores while they juggled work and caring for their young children. Her grandchildren and great-grandchildren loved going to “Mammaw’s” and she enjoyed her time spent with them.

Grace was preceded in death by her husband JM Blackledge, Sr.; grandson Jeffrey (Jeff) Milton Blackledge; parents Lillie Mae Goss Keyes and Deavours E. Keyes; Aunt and Uncle Clyde and Elma Keyes; brothers and sisters-in-law, Eugene (Gene) and Catherine Keyes, Benjamin (Ben) and Nell Keyes, Johnny Paul and Clomae Keyes; sisters and brothers-in-law Kathryn Keyes Adcock and Bob Adcock, Dorothy Keyes Byrd and Eddie Byrd.
