“ I moved to Laurel a year ago and met Todd not long afterward. He and Susie spent time with me on several occasions for some profound prayers, and I learned quickly to love and admire him greatly. Todd was a wonderful man of God with deep insight into Christian spiritual matters. I already feel his loss so much, as if I had known him for years. Take great delight in your new Heavenly home, Todd. We'll see you in the morning and then our time together will be eternal. Thank you for the short time that you were in my life here on earth. I will always treasure those moments.

“ I had the pleasure of going to school with Todd at JCJC. Though we did not keep in touch through the years I always thought of him foundly. I am glad to see that he was surrounded by such a large and loving family. He was a beautiful person inside and out. RIP my friend.
