“ It is always hard to let friends go. I cannot remember a time when Lynn was not kind to me, and he always had the ability to make all of us laugh. Thoughts and prayers will be with you now and in the days to come. May God grant you the peace that only He can provide.

“ Over 40 years ago, when I would have been no more than 12 or 13 years old, I would stay across the road from the Ballard's home with my Aunt Willie while Uncle JC worked the mid-night shift at Masonite. (JC and Willie Holifield.) I would always walk over to visit with Renae and Jerry. Of course, I got to know the whole family and everyone was so friendly. Your mom and dad were especially nice to me. Lynn, although he was five years older, would even take time to talk with me, too. I didn't see Lynn but a couple of times through the years after that but I will never forget that grin or the warmth I felt in that home. It is such a shame he had to leave this world so early. My heart goes out to you. May you feel God's comfort in this time of loss. Jencie Moss
