“ Harold was not just the man I married, he was my husband. My friend, my love. He and I had so much in common. We loved our families and we loved our church families and we loved God. We went to church together, we laughed together and cried together. Our love was real and deep. He held my hand and my heart. We fished together, I ask him once what he would have done if I had not loved to fish. He told me I would have just had to learn to love it. I will miss him so much. I thank God for the 7 years we had. Go Rest High on that Mountain my love, my friend, my husband.
