“ Christy, my heart hurts for you my friend. Harvey was always so pleasant and such a gentleman. I used to look for him in his garden when he retired for a while. I also remember that he stayed for Jerry's funeral and how that touched me. I wish I could be there for you too. I am praying for you and your family and will continue to do so.

“ Don and I send our deepest condolences on the news of Mr. Harvey Lofton's recent passing. He was an amazing man and the best Pharmacy Director that I could have ever had the pleasure of working for. He will be greatly missed by all of the friends he had, especially my husband and I. You will always be in my heart and thoughts Harvey.
