“ I guess I always thought Helen would be here forever. She was a part of my life as far back as I can remember. She taught me so much about the Lord and how he would always be there. As kids, we always loved coming over and spending time with you all. Helen was there for my graduation and my wedding and was a great friend. As time goes by, we all grow up, have families of our own and lose track of time. With Facebook we can always see families and know how you are doing but that does not take the place of a personal hug and conversation. I wish I had taken the time to do just that. I know she is with Frank and having a great time. We need to plan a get together soon. I love you all. Fran Boling

As a child Mr Jr's house was like a fairy tale. I really thought the hallway was some kind of door. Mama Pay, exotic being from England and you and Billy Jean. I was angry that "FRIED GREEN TOMATOES" stole some of my dreams. Fran I am so sad. With Daddy it was numb, with this one I feel everything. Pray

“ Helen was married to my Uncle Wayne during my early childhood. I loved sitting in her kitchen and listening to the grownups chat. Helen always had the biggest laugh and smile. Even though they separated, she always stayed Aunt Helen in my heart.

Hello Sherry. My name is Shellie, I'm the baby twin. Thank you for your memory. Our time as a family unit with Daddy and Mama was short but precious to me.
