

Helen Morrison Groh

December 24, 1929 - December 10, 2011

Helen Groh, beloved wife, sister, mother, grandmother and great grandmother, died peacefully on December 10th.

She was born in Bogalusa, Louisiana, and grew up in Laurel, Mississippi. She lived all over the world with her husband Anthony Groh, who worked as an executive at prominent international companies, including Texaco and General Dynamics. Over the years they lived in New York, California, Greece, Belgium, England, Lebanon and Saudi Arabia. Helen, who worked as an interior designer, had an adventurous spirit and loved to travel. She made close friends everywhere she went. She was a gifted story teller with a quick wit and a great sense of humor. Elegant and gracious, she easily befriended people of all ages and backgrounds. She was involved in numerous charities and was an active member of St. John's Episcopal Church in Laurel. She is loved and missed by her family: Anthony Groh, her husband of more than 50 years; her sister, Sue Morrison; her daughters, Susan McLellan and Gini Alter; her five grandchildren and her four great grandchildren.

Memory Chapel of Laurel was in charge of the arrangements. To view and sign the family guest book, visit www.memorychapel-laurel.com.

Tribute Wall

RM

“ We are so saddened to hear of Helen's passing. She was a delightful lady and we always enjoyed being with her.
Deepest sympathy, Roger and Carol McLeod

---

Roger Allan McLeod - December 21, 2011 at 02:49 PM