“ She kept my daddy, Jessie Thompson (her husband) laughing everyday of his life, whether it was her driving down the wrong side of 16th ave, fussing at the others driving on the right side, or her baby talk to KT (kitty Tom) she was a good woman an loved to eat crab when visiting the coast, her big smile will forever live on. You both are now together forever, and will always be remembered and missed. Love you both forever and always!

“ Lisa, I have had you & your family in my thoughts & prayers. I did not have the pleasure of meeting or knowing your mom, but everything that I have heard about her I know that I would have loved her too.
I pray our Sweet Lord to give you the strength in the days to come. I can see her smiling now....gazing upon the face of our Jesus...
God be with You & your Family.
