“ You were the best Daddy ever. You taught us to love the Lord, other people and to love our family. I have such sweet memories growing up of you singing and carrying on. Between you and Tammy we didn't need a tv to entertain us. You taught me to make coffee so that there was always a fresh cup for Moma when she got home from work and you never complained when I was first learning to cook. You will be missed so much but we're so thankful to know you're in Heaven and not struggling to breath anymore. We will see you again. I love you, Daddy!!💕💕

Even so, Lord Jesus, come soon! Judy
