“ Christina I know we haven't talked in a few years, but know that I am truly sorry for the loss of your brother. He was a really good kid and I know he will be greatly missed. Tyler, my heart goes out to you. I am so sorry this tragedy has happened, but know that God had a reason.. Hunter is in a way better place and you will see him again some day... Crissy, I can't even imagine the pain your heart is feeling right now. There is nothing that could ever be worse than losing a child. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
