

Ida Mae Phillips

August 24, 1919 - June 11, 2018

Ida Mae Phillips, 98, of Laurel, passed away on June 11, 2018 at her residence.

Graveside services will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday, June 16th at Hickory Grove Cemetery in Laurel. Rev. Thomas Cheeks will officiate.

Born August 24, 1919, she was the last of six siblings born to William and Francis Jones. Mrs. Phillips taught in the Laurel City School System for twenty years as a first and second grade teacher and art teacher. Her true passion was painting and sewing. She was a long-time member of Highland Church where she was faithful in her walk with her Savior until the end.

She was preceded in death by her husband, William "Bill" Phillips and her daughter, Virginia Saul.

Survivors include her granddaughter, Stacy Saul of Laurel and grandson, Jay Saul of Pensacola, FL; and a host of nieces and nephews.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to SCAR or to a charity of your choice.

“ My great aunt... I have few memories of her, but I remember Uncle Bill made me toys as a small child and Aunt Ida Mae would come gossip with my grandma (her sister in law) from time to time. I've been gone from Mississippi for a few years... It pains me to know she's gone. RIP Aunt Ida Mae.

Does anyone know if Mrs. Phillips ever taught school at Colfax School? I had a teacher in 3rd grade at Colfax, (North Carolina) named Ida Mae Phillips. This would've been around 1950 or 1951.

“ Bill and Ida Mae were friends and neighbors of our the time that we lived in Laurel. When we moved to Memphis, we happen to run into both of them while they were up visiting Virginia. Jon and Stacy, our hearts go out to you and I hope you knew how much we loved your grandparents.
