February 16, 1944 - December 7, 2020

Iris Arlene (Robinson) Holloway of Laurel died on December 7, 2020 at South Central Regional Medical Center. She was born in Laurel on February 16, 1944 to Claude and Gertrude Robinson.

Iris retired after serving many years as a purchasing clerk for the Jones County Board of Supervisors. She was a resident at Sugar Hill Resort in Laurel where she enjoyed spending time with friends and fellow residents. She attended First Baptist Church of Laurel.

Iris relished gardening and growing an array of flowers and potted plants, watching the Ole Miss Rebels, and boasting about her family. Never at a loss for words, she loved to laugh and tell stories from her childhood in the Cotton Mill district of west Laurel. Iris delighted in family gatherings, especially those around the holidays. Family members looked forward to her holiday cooking, including her famous dumplings.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her brothers Gene, Bobby, and Ray Robinson, her first husband Gary Lowe, and her second husband Ransom Holloway. She is survived by her sister Bonnie Ratcliff, her brother Ronnie Robinson (Barbara), and her children Laurie Hodge (Jerry), Greg Lowe (Linda), and Jody Lowe (Claire).

She will also be lovingly missed by her grandchildren Brandi Taylor (Joel), Lacey Robinson, Lyndi Pryor (Dewayne), Mallory Coats (Chad), Madi Kate Wallace and Mary Hollis Lowe; great-grandchildren Daygen Warren, Landri Warren, Cambri Smith, Brinna Moss, Britley Allred, and Reese Coats; and step grandchildren Dawson Pryor and Destin Pryor.

“ Laurie, Greg, and Jody,
I'm sorry to hear the sad news about your Mother. I would have loved to visit with you in person if it were not for the crazy times we are living in. I just can't help but think about all the stories my Mom would tell about the Robinson cousins growing up together and how much she thought of Iris. May the Lord bless you all in the days ahead....
