

Jack M. Cobb

September 22, 1937 - December 20, 2015

Mr. Jack M. Cobb, age 78, passed away Sunday, December 20, 2015, at Elmcroft Senior Living Center in Hurst, Texas.

Graveside services will be held at 10:00 AM on Thursday, December 24, 2015, at North Raleigh Cemetery in Raleigh, Mississippi. Memory Chapel of Laurel is in charge of arrangements.

A memorial service celebrating the life of Mr. Cobb will be held Thursday, January 7, 2016, at Lucas Funeral Chapel on Precinct Line Road in Hurst, Texas.

A longtime resident of Hurst, Mr. Cobb was born on September 22, 1937, in Batesville, Mississippi. He graduated from the University of Mississippi in 1959 and completed his Specialist degree in music and additional advanced courses at The University of North Texas in 1971.

Mr. Cobb was a devoted husband, an accomplished musician, a dedicated professor of music, and an avid fan of Ole Miss Football and the Dallas Cowboys.

During his distinguished career as a lead trombonist in the Dallas-Fort Worth area, Mr. Cobb toured with numerous big band orchestras throughout the country and abroad.

Mr. Cobb was preceded in death by his parents, Robert L. Cobb and Annie M. Cobb, and his brother, Bob Cobb.

He is survived by his beloved wife of fifty years, Shelby Bounds Cobb, and her brother Dr. Sam (Lisa) Bounds. He is also survived by his niece, Sandra Cobb, nephew, Jim Cobb, and a host of fellow musicians and former students with whom he shared the joy of music.

Memorials may be sent to Tarrant County College, North East Campus, in Hurst, Texas, where Mr. Cobb was a Professor of Music for 35 years.

“ We have great memories of Jack Cobb for many of those 35 years. Music drew us together and he was always cordial wherever we met and ALWAYS asked about our son, Richard II, who was his improv student as a teenager. RIP, great memories! God Bless.
