“ I met this Dear Man at church at Soso, only saw him a few times, he was always encouraging to talk with, made you feel like all was well, and he appreciated us coming to church there. Plan to see him again in Heaven.

I had the privilege of being in the church service during which jack surrendered his life to God and was filled to the overflowing with the Holy Spirit. Such joy I have not seen before or since. It is one of my fondest memories.

Jack and Janice were a solid reference point in my life, as was his mother, who we called Aunt May.
