“ Aunt Jackie was the dearest and sweetest aunt one could be blessed to have. I have so many cherished memories of her over the years. She had an unusual sensitivity and concern for others that is rare. I was fortunate to be close in age with her oldest daughter, Lisa, and that gave me an opportunity to spend time during summers with her family. Those opportunities allowed me to see what a servant spirit she had and connect more closely with her daughters, my first cousins. Lisa and Dawn will always be more like sisters than cousins to me, and I grieve with them over their tremendous loss, while also looking forward to all being reunited in Christ Jesus one day.

“ I was had just finished Mississippi College in 1963 and came to serve as Minister of Education/Youth at Highland Baptist Church in Laurel. I had not yet married. But two very special people, Ken and Jackie Allred (plus their two precious preschool daughters) fed me many a meal. They were faithful leaders at the church and an encouragement to me.
Praying for the family.

“ Jackie and Ken were friends for many years. We are thankful God allowed our paths to cross. Jackie’s smile was infectious. When you saw and talked with her, she manifested her love for the Lord. We have missed seeing her at church during Covid and then her declining health. Keep looking to God for strength and faith during these days. We shall be remembering all of you.
