“ I remember riding on the four wheel to the garden to help when we got done he said I love you Cole . One day me and him were picking up stick he said thank you for your help and I love you . One other thing I remember he was always was willing to help with everything. I remember the day before he passed he said when I get better I'll help you with you cows. I will cherish all the memories are made with them over the years Poppy if you listen to that now I love you

“ I can see Jack on the other side of a cutover on the Sharon Hunting Club. You knew it was him because he always wore those white rubber boots he wore on his workboat. Those were some good days shared with Jack and his family. God bless and will keep you in our prayers. I will see Jack again because of a man named Jesus.
