

James Harold Byrd

April 12, 1934 - August 9, 2015

James Harold Byrd, 81, of Laurel, died Sunday, August 9, 2015, at Regency Hospital in Hattiesburg.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Wednesday, August 12, 2015, at Memory Chapel with burial to follow at Springhill Cemetery. Rev. Harold Holifield will officiate. Visitation will be held from 5 until 8 p.m. Tuesday, at Memory Chapel.

Mr. Byrd was a retired truck driver with Luther McGill and T. K. Stanley. He was a veteran of the U. S. Armed Services and served during the Korean Conflict. He was a member of Springhill Baptist Church.

Mr. Byrd is survived by his wife, Rachel Byrd of Laurel; two sons, Arthur Byrd (Michelle) of Heidelberg and Earl Byrd of Laurel; two daughters, Willow Dean Bolivar (Gary) of Ellisville and Polly Price (Marty) of the Calhoun Community; five grandchildren; three great grandchildren; and two sisters, Jeanette Welch of Ellisville and Beverly Turner of Ovett.

Pallbearers will be Phillip Byrd, Alex Ball, Eric Bolivar, Lewis Sullivan, Greg Holifield, and Tommy Harrison.

To view and sign the guest book, visit www.memorychapelalaurel.com.

Tribute Wall

DB

“ So sorry for your loss. Prayers for all of the family.

Donna Roney Bynum - August 11, 2015 at 09:26 PM

RH

“ James Harold Byrd

Renee Hollingsworth - August 11, 2015 at 03:27 PM

PL

“ Ms Rachel, Arthur, and family just wanted to tell you how very sorry I was to hear about Mr Harold. My deepest condolences and prayers go out to you in this time of need.

Paula Lemoine - August 11, 2015 at 11:00 AM