

James W. Pitts

May 4, 1926 - December 21, 2010

James W. Pitts, 84, of Soso, died Monday, December 21, 2010 at his residence.

Funeral services will be held at 10 am Thursday, December 23, 2010 at Centerville Baptist Church in Jones County, with burial in Big Creek Cemetery. Rev. John Hilbun and Rev. Jimmy Hood will officiate.

Mr. Pitts was a retired pipe fitter and served in the U. S. Army during World War II. He was a member of Centerville Baptist Church.

He was preceded in death by his parents, W. Nowell Pitts and Alice Nix Pitts; daughter, Gail Pitts; and two brothers, Max Pitts and Dee Pitts.

Survivors include wife, Lavada Jefcoat Pitts of the Centerville community; two sons, Robert Pitts and wife Peggy of Houston, Texas and Steve Pitts of the Centerville Community; daughter, Regina Wedgeworth and husband Harry of the Centerville community; 6 grandchildren; 13 great grandchildren; 3 brothers, Glen Pitts of Jackson, Dayton Pitts of Laurel and Gerald Pitts of Soso; and one sister, Shirley Todd of Monticello.

Pallbearers will be grandsons and great grandsons.

Visitation will be held from 5pm until on Wednesday, December 22 at Centerville Baptist Church in Jones County. Memory Chapel of Laurel is in charge of the arrangements.