“ Uncle James was always so kind to my family. He loved my Father, Coy Davis, so much and treated him like a brother instead of a brother-in-law. They spent hours sitting around our big kitchen table in Long Beach, MS rehashing their military life and sharing war stories. Even after my Dad's death, Uncle James always checked on my Mother and younger siblings. I respected him and deeply admired his love for my Aunt Lillian. At their 50th Wedding Anniversary celebration, it was easy to see their love for each other and their dear family. Rest in Peace, Uncle James. May light perpetual surround you in the loving arms of God.

I am so sorry to hear of the death of my good friend of 66 years. We started our careers together at Lockheed Aircraft in Marietta, Ga. and have remained friends every since.We will think of he and Lillian often as we know they are dancing together everyday now. Lillian was such a great supporter for me when I had cancer several years ago before she died. Jim was a very good man and will be sorely missed. Our deepest sympathy..... Tom and Evelyn Tabor
