“ I have lots of wonderful memories with Mr. Jarvis while visiting with Cindy. He and Mrs. Jeanette were always so welcoming to me as one of their daughters friends and I will never forget riding my bicycle to their house on 84E before it became so dangerous to do so and of course I walked there a lot of times too. They were both so friendly and gracious and opened their home up to me as well as to many others throughout the neighbourhood. My love to you all Cindy. I would be there to support you and your family if I lived close by but as you probably know, I haven't lived in Jones County since 1997. I live in Ridgeland and have since 2000, after a 3 year hiatus to Meridian, we were talked into moving to Ridgeland by our daughter who went to work for AT&T, and then she left us and moved to Starkville for 4 years and then to Nashville//Franklin, TN, where I think they most likely will remain. Anyway, I will be thinking of you and your mother and sister and brother and DaLynn and all of the grandchildren and all of the other family members who I may have met along life's paths. May God Bless you all and be with each of you during your time together as you grieve your dad's passing into the arms of our Saviours arms! With my prayers and love, Donna Rustin Riles
