“ Jason was my cousin, he and I grew up together. I lost track of him after I moved to TN to go to college. And quite honestly I had to distance myself from him when I'd come back home to visit, for a few different reasons. He'd make me laugh till it hurt. And he taught me a lot about music, and playing a few different instruments. I'll always appreciate that, cause it was invaluable.

I hated to hear of him passing away. But seeing this picture of him being Baptized made me happy. Rest well. I'll see you again one day, and all will be forgiven.

“ I knew Jason 20 years and over the years we had our ups and downs no doubt. He has made me laugh till it hurt with his weirdness. He was my friend and he will be missed.
