“ Barbara and family, We are so very sorry about Carl's passing. We have so many great memories in our Sunday School class and fellowships at First Assembly. I remember the look on his face when I asked him to teach the class the next Sunday, and he did a great job even though he was so nervous he finished in ten minutes. :) You all are in our prayers. “ My sympathies go out to Carl's wife and children as well as his extended law enforcement family. Carl was a good guy and always had a smile. I had the privilege of knowing him and working in the same law enforcement community in my job at Circuit Court. He will be missed. Go up high on the mountain Carl. May you feel the breath of Angels on your face.
