

Jerry Ellis Ingram

November 5, 1950 - September 30, 2014

Jerry Ellis Ingram, age 63, died on September 30, 2014 at his home in Laurel, MS.

Jerry is survived by his wife, Kathy Hanna Ingram, daughter Kandi Ingram Johnson, and granddaughter Kylie Mae Johnson, all of Laurel, MS; his brothers, David Ingram and Steve Ingram and his wife, Evelyn, all of Laurel, MS; and his sisters, Chloe Ingram King, of Prentiss, MS, Ruth Ingram Lewis and her husband, Bob, of Redmond, WA, Sybil Ingram Nowell, of Senatobia, MS, and Janet Ingram Pitts, of Petal, MS. and sister in law Linda Ingram of Ellisville. He is preceded in death by his father, Lester Ingram; his mother, Mae Reeves Ingram; his brother, Vernon Ingram, all of Laurel, MS.

Jerry was a wonderful husband and a loving father. He enjoyed being with his family and spending Papaw time with his precious three year old granddaughter, Kylie Mae. He knew Jesus personally and is now resting peacefully in His arms with no more pain to bear. His family and friends will always remember Jerry as a gentle, but strong man with a lot of heart. He was a devoted husband to his Kathy. He was always a tower of strength for Kathy as she lost her vision through their many years of marriage. Jerry loved being a father and grandfather to Kandi and Kylie. Jerry referred to Kandi and Kylie as his heart. Jerry will be missed, but his family celebrates the fact that they will be reunited again with him on that glorious day of His coming. He was a member of Kingston Assembly of God Church.

A funeral is scheduled for 10 a.m. on Saturday, October 4, 2014, at Memory

Chapel. Bro. Scott Davis, Rev. Chris Nowell, and Rev. Andre Thornton will officiate. Interment will follow at Hickory Grove Cemetery. Visitation will be from 5 until 8 p.m. Friday, October 3, 2014, at Memory Chapel.

Pallbearers will be Robert Butler, David Boyd, Jack West, Tommy McGee, Adam Ishee, and Jarred Ingram. Honorary pallbearer will be Alan Walters.

Memory Chapel is in charge of the arrangements. To view and sign the family guest book, visit www.memorychapellaurel.com.
