“ I met Jimmy in 1966 at Sears in Laurel. My wife was in the hospital so as a surprise for her I went to Sears to buy a washer and dryer. We were going to the laundromat to wash and dry our clothes. Sears had a sale on them for $100.00 each. When I left Jimmy, like a great salesman encouraged me to upgrade and I walked out spending $400.00 . I never regretted that decision because we had those appliances for 20 years. Jimmy was not only a great salesman he was a genuine Christian man. I did business with him several times after that and was always impressed by his character and his ability to help people. God bless his family and other friends during this difficult time 🙏❤️
