

Joan Voigt Rosentreter

December 29, 1924 - July 31, 2024

Joan Voigt Rosentreter entered Eternal Life and was reunited with her husband, Leo, on July 31, 2024 at the age of 99. She was born in Brazil, Indiana and graduated from high school in Stanley, Wisconsin. She earned her bachelor's degree in design at the Art Institute of Chicago. Joan enjoyed a very successful, long career in high-end fashion design in New York City. Later she relocated with her husband and resided in Denver, Colorado and Laurel, Mississippi. She was preceded in death by her husband, Leo, her parents Kathryn (Wilson) and Edward Voigt, and her siblings, Edward James Voigt, Robert Voigt, and Mary Kay Voigt.

Joan was a beautiful person and loved to share her talent and appreciation of fashion, art, flowers, decorating, and culinary skills. She volunteered many hours at the Lauren Rogers Museum and First Trinity Presbyterian church in Laurel. She will be missed by family, friends, and all fortunate enough to have known her.

A family-only service will be held in Wisconsin where Joan will be interred. If desired, memorials can be made in her name to: First Trinity Presbyterian Church or Lauren Rogers Museum in Laurel. Memory Chapel in Laurel is assisting the family.

“ I was saddened to learn about Joan Rosentreter's passing. I was introduced to her and Leo by my uncle, Andrew Bucci -- they were all artists and shared a deep connection through their art and friendship. The photo is from October 2014 and was taken on their lovely patio, where Joan served us lunch. We had such a wonderful time! Sending my condolences to Joan's family. - Margaret Bucci
