“ John was loved and will be missed very much at Galloway. He was always in the gathering area to greet everyone on Sunday mornings. I will miss him in church sitting on his walker in his spot.

“ I am so sorry to hear of John's death. I enjoyed seeing him nearly every Sunday at Galloway. We enjoyed the Columbia connection -- I knew "Ms Vic" his grandmother, who lived next door to one of my favorite great-aunts (by marriage). My dad was Ms Vic's doctor and Aunt Nell was married to one of my grandmother's brothers. John was such a devoted member of Galloway and he will be missed both in his regular pew seat and his perch next to the coffee machine after early church. Our sympathies to all his family, Ginnie Thompson Munford

“ I will miss seeing John at Galloway Memorial United Methodist Church. Once I entered the building around 7:30A on Sunday morning, his voice was usually the first one I heard. He would say, What do you know that 's good? I would respond with a few words as I made my way to the choir room.

“ Carol. I just saw in the paper about John. I am so sorry and please tell your mother and Eric that Judy and I are so sorry. I still remember when we were young and how we played together so much. I did a home loan for John when I was still working and he caught me up on your family. I think he said you worked for Delta. I would love to hear from you.

“ I was so shocked to read John's obituary in this morning's Clarion-Ledger. I would see John every Sunday morning sitting in the gathering area at Galloway when I came in about 8:00 p.m. to prepare for the 8:30 a.m. service. I will certainly miss those early morning chats. John has been a valued member of Galloway's congregation for a long time and we will miss him greatly.

“ John will be missed. Every Sunday night at 6:15 he would call. That call has now gone silent. I know he is where he wants to be, with his Daddy, Grandmother and other family and friends that loved him.

I just heard today from one of our high school classmates about John's death. My mother, Katy Fulton, had seen him several times at the Baptist health center in Jackson several times and he was always thoughtful to make sure he talked to her. John was such a sweet person to everyone at school and in our church youth group in Laurel. He was a kind soul. I know he will be missed.
