“ This man was one of the greatest men I knew. I am proud to say he was my father-in-law. He was kind and loved his family very deeply. He was a good christian, a wonderful husband, a wonderful father, an excellent grandfather, and the best father-in-law in the whole world. He is now with his wonderful wife and my daughter in heaven. I know they are welcoming him with open arms. He will be singing with them for sure.

I'm really going to miss him very, very much.

“ With all our Love and Sympathy - The Carlisles - JC, Kaye, Amanda and Jami.

As my Uncle, you brought a lot of love, joy and help to our family. Though it's probably not the place to address the issue, but one of my fondest memories centered around the fact that you promised my Mother to buy me a stroller, if I were born on your birthday. I'm still waiting for that stroller and we had many a good laugh about this subject numerous times through out our lives - especially a little over 3 years ago, when my Mother, all my brothers and I last visited you!! Considering the fact that you always enjoyed joking, picking fun with people and enjoying life, I hope you realized just how much an impact you had on me and everyone you met. With all that said Uncle John, I release you from your commitment for the stroller. Our enjoyment of the bantering about it's non-delivery, is more precious to me than the physical item itself.

Give our Love to Aunt Alene and all our other relatives that have gone on.

It goes without saying, but at the sake of redundancy, I loved you, we all loved you and I'll cherish your memories for the rest of my life.

Love,

JC
