“ To ALL the Davis family my love and prayers are with you. I'm so sorry to hear the loss of Joe he was a great man! One that I was blessed to share a part of my life with. And even though we parted ways in life, He helped me more than he ever knew. and for that I will forever be grateful. I will always have a special place in my heart for Joe where I will always hold the love we once shared. I will always miss and love him.
