“ I remember Larry as the younger brother of his sisters Nicki and Jean. Back in the day, the front porch of the McAlpin was THE gathering place for the teens in town. His Mom was a good hostess and always had treats. Larry loved to torment us "older" girls and we learned to tolerated him!!!! I am so sorry for his sweet sisters that are left to cherish his memory. May God keep you in His loving care in the days ahead. Love and prayers, Ann Rose Martin Howell

“ I was visiting his nephew Al Robertson, I had a hole in my car muffler and Larry told me if I bought one he would put on for me. I will always remember how he cared.
