Juan Reyes Moncivais, loving husband and father, age 63, born Dec. 2, 1954 and passed away May 20, 2018.

Juan, also known as “Pop”, was loved by many. He worked hard not only for himself, but also for others. He was a Good Samaritan and devoted friend. He was the patriarch of the family, a bridge that closed the gap between family here and in Mexico. He was an open door that allowed anyone and everyone a place at his table.

He was preceded in death by his father, Isabel Moncivais; brothers, Oscare, Beto, Chewy, and Ruben; and sons, Poncho and Miguel.

Survivors include his mother, Mercedes Reyes; wife, Kathryne (Cookie) Moncivais; daughters, Daisy Moncivais, Angie Champaign and Elizabeth Moncivais; sons, Vicente, Juan, Jake (Mundi), Morgan, Eduardo, Beto and Chris; sisters, Maria and Margarita; brothers, Chabelo Armando, Payo, and Hector; grandchildren, Taylor, Lawson, Gaby, DJ, Isaac, Grayson, Sofia, JJ, Eli, Penny, Sky, Noah, Marco, Stella, Ester, and Charlotte; and many beloved nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers will be his sons.

The last time Juan came by my house I was under my truck trying to remove the oil filter.

Immediately Juan was under the truck helping me!

I'll miss him, he went too early , but reckon God was ready for him!

May God's peace be on all that miss Juan too.
