

Judith Carolyn Blackledge Wood

January 8, 1953 - August 6, 2020

Judith Carolyn Blackledge Wood, 67, went home to the Lord on August 6, 2020. She was surrounded by family and friends. She was born on January 8, 1953 in Laurel, MS. She lived her whole life in the Rustin community.

Judith was a CNA for nearly 30 years. She worked at Hearthside and Jones County Rest Home. She also did private sitting. She was an avid gardener, loving to work in her yard with her flowers. She loved when planting time came around in the spring so she could plant her tomatoes. She is best known as Maw-Maw Judy to her grandchildren and to whom ever came around with them. She treated them the same. She attended Lake Congregational Methodist Church for many years. She loved her church family and always kept up after she was not able to attend.

She is preceded in death by her father, Oliver Andrew Blackledge; mother, Barbara Ruth Hodge Blackledge; and husband, William Thomas "Bill" Wood, Sr.

She is survived by her son, William Thomas "Tommy" Wood, Jr. (Kristine); daughter, Jennifer Dianne Wood (Rickey); sister, Debra Blackledge (Jeffie); brother-in-law, Talmadge Wood (Margaret), sister-in-law, Dell Williams (Billy Ray) and sister-in-law, Merle Wood. She is also survived by grandchildren, Ethan Hodge (Emily), Hanna Wood, Wyatt Hodge, Lauren Wood, Abby Hodge, Rion Wood, and great grandchild due in November, Madelyn Belle Hodge. She also had a host of nephews and nieces whom she loved greatly and special grandchildren, Ericka Snyder, Cole Sykes, Matt Sykes, and Peyton Perry.

Graveside services will be held at 10 a.m. Wednesday, August 12, 2020 at Blackledge Cemetery.

Pallbearers will be Ethan Hodge, Wyatt Hodge, Ben Gordon, Jonathan Hodge, Cole Sykes, Chris Anderson, Thomas "Son" Holifield, and J. B. Sykes. To sign the online guest book, visit www.memorychapellaurel.com.
