“ Cecile was my cousin who used to visit us at Heidelberg, MS when she was a young girl . She had the most beautiful hair which we could never put in a ponytail like Aunt Ina could, but we managed. My mother, Mary Privett Thatch was a sister to her grandmother, Mittie , but we never knew her. We loved all of them so much. My sister and I were so shocked when we happened to find Cecile's obituary today. I wish we could get to know you her family. My name is Jo Thatch Sanders and my sister's name is Betty Thatch Higginbotham. We will pray for all of you in the loss of Cecile. God bless you.
