“ I will truly miss my friend, but I know God do things for a reason. To her husband,and two sons my prayers goes out to you because a virtuous women has gone home to meet her personal savior,Jesus Christ. We were friends to the end. I know God put her in my life for a reason. I'll miss you my buddy, I'll miss you my friend, but the time came when you had to go. So now I have to let go and let God. Be strong family and know that God is your strength and by His grace you all will meet again. The battle is over. She fought a good fight.
