“ Working with you these past 8 months has been an amazing adventure. Loved the way you had an analogy about every topic we would talk about. I was truly blessed to have met you and even more blessed to have worked with you. You will be truly missed my friend. May they welcome you in heaven as a fantasy soldier with a World War 2 veteran cosplay outfit on flying your favorite plane in the sky and gracing everyone with your truly admirable persona. Rest in peace brother.

“ I have far too many memories to post just one, So I will post a few of my favorites.

When I close my eyes, we are kids again. We are building box forts in the backyard, getting crafts from hobby lobby, riding our bikes around cricket mountain, sitting outside waiting for the neighbors to come out and play, playing king of the hill at Aunt Liz's, staying up late and watching Justice League at Aunt Charolettes, playing Halo Reach on Legendary, trying to beat our highest round on Black Ops Zombies, waiting at the bus stop on Sun Harbor Dr, watching mythbusters with mom and dad, we are happy.

I love you always Justin.

With all the love your little sister has to give.
