“ Betty was one of my favorite classmates in high school. She was always happy and a joy to be with. My most sincere condolences to her family.

“ Betty was one of my role models growing up; I adored her, as did all the kids on the block. She lived across the street from us on First Avenue and we had such fun. I will always remember Betty's advice re school, boys, sports--everything!! She took us on picnics to Lake Shelby in the summertime and was always kind and protective and full of fun. We hope the memories her family treasures will be a great comfort in the years ahead. With love, Nancy (Ellzey) Eudy
