

Kaye R. Carlisle

November 7, 1961 - October 15, 2025

Kaye Rebecca Carlisle, of Laurel, Mississippi passed away on October 15, 2025 at her home surrounded by family. She was born on November 7, 1961, in Laurel, Mississippi to Bessie Rebecca Knight and Charles Edward Brown (“Charlie”).

Kaye was a devoted and loving wife, mother, sister, and friend whose heart was as generous as her spirit was strong.

She is survived by her husband, J.C. Carlisle, her two daughters, Amanda Kaye Carlisle and Jami Rebecca Carlisle, bonus daughter Erika Griffin, two brothers, Charles Edward Brown, Jr. (“Eddy”) and Stephen Lawrence Brown, two brothers-in-law, Jimmy Ray Carlisle and Michael Carlisle, a sister-in-law, Sylvia Carlisle, and many nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents and sister.

Pallbearers will be Eddy Brown, Stephen Brown, Jimmy Ray Carlisle, Michael Carlisle, Jonathan Carlisle, William Carlisle, and Jacob Carlisle.

Throughout her life, Kaye poured her heart into caring for others. She spent most of her career working with children, a calling that reflected her boundless patience and compassion. When she wasn’t nurturing the children she worked with, she found her greatest joy in raising her two daughters, whom she loved beyond measure.

If you knew Kaye, you knew she always spoke her mind and always thought of others first. She had a way of showing up exactly when you needed her most to listen, lend a hand, give some hard advice, or share a laugh. Her kindness and honesty left an impression on everyone who crossed her path.

Kaye's love for life showed in everything she did. She spent many years volunteering at various churches with her friends. She was known for her famous pecan pie and other desserts. Kaye also enjoyed gardening, quilting, and crafting. There wasn't much she couldn't make or fix with her own two hands.

Kaye touched countless lives with her generosity, creativity, and love. Her legacy will live on through the people she cared for, the beauty she created, and the memories she leaves behind. She will be deeply missed and forever cherished by all who were lucky enough to know her.

“ Kaye made us feel so welcome when we moved to Huntsville. And any time we came back to visit, she would gift us a delicious jar of her homemade blackberry jelly made from her own garden blackberries! Kaye is one of the kindest people I’ve ever known. Prayers for JC and the family. May she rest in peace. Love from Robert & DiAnn

“ Kaye was our first best friend. We even had a couple of birthday parties together. How I wish we would have been able to get together in person in recent years. My prayers are with you all, especially Eddy and Stephen.

“Kaye and I met when we were both new to Huntsville, TX. Her Jami and my Kate were in Discovery Days Preschool at University Heights Baptist Church. Our friendship was sealed when we both ended up working at Discovery Days. Kaye had a generous spirit and a generous heart. We journeyed through the highs and lows of life, parenting, and health. I was the noisy one, and Kaye was steadfast. Our mutual faith was our anchor.

My daughters adored Kaye and felt she was family. Neither Kaye nor I had any extended relatives in Huntsville. My Kate would listen to Kaye when she wouldn't listen to me, and Kaye would listen to my Claire when she was hesitant to share something with me. It was a blessing.

I'm honored to have a copy of her mom's pecan pie recipe, eaten Kaye's torillia soup, have had her aid me in my attempts at crafting, and to have had such a good listener when my life was at its lowest.

After I moved from Huntsville, our phone calls, text messages, and cards kept us together as we swapped stories and photos about our respective daughters, home DIY, beloved pets, and extended family news. The gap she leaves now is full of memories that will last forever until we meet again. Kaye fought a good fight, and she was tired. She knew where she was going and is now healed.

J.C., Amanda, Jami, Steven, and Eddy will be in our hearts and minds. Kaye was one of the kindest souls I've ever had in my life.

Kaye will always be a part of who we are today,
