“ Ms Libby and Creig, There are very few childhood memories that I have, that do not have Kelley and your wonderful family in them. Have comfort in knowing God does not make mistakes. He needed Kelley in Heaven more than he needed her here. And although our hearts are heavy, in her leaving way to soon. Her purpose has a greater meaning right where she is now. I pray God give you all peace in knowing, She is in her forever home.

May God hold you all tight and give you comfort in the days to come.

“ I heard five minutes ago that Kelley had passed away. My heart is broken, because I loved her so much. I just knew we'd run into one another any day now, where we'd hug, tell each other we loved one another, and that we hoped all was well and promise to get together soon. My memories of her are filled with lots of laughter, love, and of our awful singing voices (well, mine was awful) as we sang along to 80's & 90's songs in the car when we were together. Goodbye old friend!
