

Kenneth Samuel Gaugler

March 31, 1928 - October 12, 2022

Kenneth Samuel Gaugler, 94, of Gilbertsville PA, born on March 31, 1928, passed away in his home in Vossburg MS on October 12, 2022.

He was preceded in death by wife, Gloria. They celebrated 70 wonderful years of marriage together. He was also preceded in death by his parents, Henry Gaugler and Dorothy (Moyer) Gaugler, and his daughter Susan (Jimmy), along with his one sister and three brothers, and a great grandson and a great granddaughter.

He is survived by his four sons: Dennis, Kenneth "Corky" (Rebecca), Danny (Penny), and Henry (Connie): 14 grandchildren, 39 great grandchildren, and three great granddaughters. He is also survived by many friends and other family members.

Kenneth and his wife Gloria were members of New Hanover Lutheran Church in Gilbertsville PA. Kenneth, growing up on a farm, learned at an early age what hard work meant and he carried this lesson through his whole life. He worked as an over-the-road truck driver for over 30 years to build a home and provide for his family. He loved hunting and deep-sea fishing. When you couldn't find him at home, you knew he was at the hunting camp enjoying his best life! He was always making you laugh with his jokes or little pranks. He loved to have a good time and never let life pass him by. He may have been 94 on the outside but on inside he was still 21. He would cut up like the rest of us and was never too old for mud riding. He, by far, was the greatest man with a heart of gold. He loved us all with every ounce of his being and we all loved him the same. He has built a lifetime of memories and laughs for all of us to hold on to. There will never be another "Pop" and he will forever be greatly missed by all.

Services will be held on Saturday, October 29th, 2022 at 2 p.m. at Memory Chapel 3100 Audubon Drive in Laurel MS.
